

A photograph of a paper mill, showing large rolls of paper being processed by machinery. The scene is dimly lit, with light coming from a window in the background.

A single newsprint company has convinced our government to tax the paper that is used in newspapers, books and other publications. The rest of the industry opposes this new tax.

Now, increased paper costs is threatening thousands of jobs in the printing and publishing industry. Is this how our trade laws should be used?

Abuse of Our Trade Laws

Will Kill American Jobs.
